What to expect

① We review your report

Our specialists in the Civil Rights Division carefully read every report to identify civil rights violations, spot trends, and determine if we have authority to help with your report.

② Our specialists determine the next step

We may decide to:

Open an investigation or take some other action within the legal authority of the Justice Department.

Collect more information before we can look into your report.

Recommend another government agency that can properly look into your report. If so, we'll let you know.

In some cases, we may determine that we don't have legal authority to handle your report and will recommend that you seek help from a private lawyer or local legal aid organization.

③ When possible, we will follow up with you

We do our best to let you know about the outcome of our review. However, we may not always be able to provide you with updates because:

We're actively working on an investigation or case related to your report.

We're receiving and actively reviewing many requests at the same time.

If we are able to respond, we will contact you using the contact information you provided in this report.

Depending on the type of report, response times can vary. If you need to reach us about your report, please refer to your report number when contacting us. This is how we keep track of your submission.

What you can do next

① Contact local legal aid organizations or a lawyer if you haven't already

Legal aid offices or members of lawyer associations in your state may be able to help you with your issue.

American Bar Association, visit www.americanbar.org/groups/legal_services/flh-home or call (800) 285-2221

Legal Services Corporation (or Legal Aid Offices), to help you find a legal aid lawyer in your area visit www.lsc.gov/find-legal-aid

② Get help immediately if you are in danger

If you reported an incident where you or someone else has experienced or is still experiencing physical harm or violence, or are in immediate danger, please call 911 and contact the police.

Personal description

In your own words, describe what happened

I was denied my right to a fair and just trial by a jury of my peers. Also I was denied sufficient counsel in case number 512022CF003171CFAXES and also 512021CF001143CFAXES in the Sixth Judicial Circuit Court of Pasco County Florida. My court appointed counsel was changed 17 times in 4 different court appointed law offices. I told every single lawyer I wanted my day in trial and was denied. After 2 years I was wrongfully arrested in order to violate my bond and incarcerate me. I was then notified by my counsel that I would be incarcerated for the rest of my life until I signed a plea deal because of my prior employment with Pasco County Public Works and the bad media coverage would be because I was fighting 5 felony charges. After a year of incarceration I gave up and took a plea deal. Post conviction I was refused my right to a appeal and the courts did not recognize my motion for 3.850 rule for post conviction relief. I'm being persecuted, gangstalked and electronically harassed because of my national origin being that I was born and raised in New York state and now live in Florida as a "Yankee". I have also had a false investigation of rape opened on me on the day I was falsely arrested July 29, 2022 so that no lawyer will help me gain justice for what has been done to me. Prior to this my 3 children where removed from my custody due to a false arrest on December 9, 2020. The case was dropped in February 2021 and my children where held for ransom by Pasco County even after I completed all requirements and the fact that there was no grounds to remove them due to the charges being dropped and eventually given to foster care.

I have been a targeted by a systemic discrimination from year 2020-2024 by my former employer Pasco County that has taken my family, all worldly possessions and my civil rights as a American citizen former government employee because I'm a "Yankee"

Please look into my court records in the sixth judicial circuit court of Pasco County Florida and you will see the blatant discrimination of civil rights. Thank you for your time
